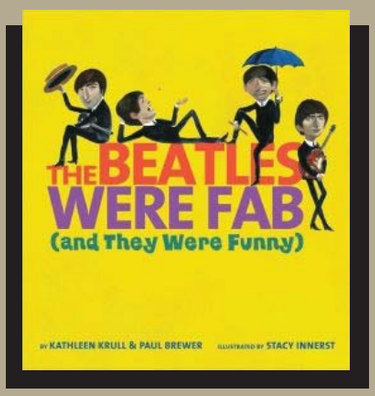
Join us After Hours at the Library



Authors Kathleen Krull and Paul Brewer, in person

The Beatles Were Fab

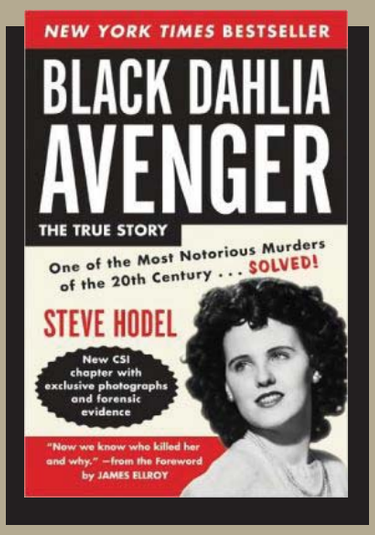
A program people ages 10 & up will enjoy. You're welcome to come dressed in your favorite '60s outfit. Book will be available for purchase.

Central Library · Thursday, October 10 · 6:30 · Get free tickets at Central or Whittwood Branch. Sponsored by the WPL Foundation.

Spirits of Oktoberfest

Sorry, tickets are gone.

Sip and learn about the exciting world of craft beers, presented by beer connoisseur (and professor of English and World Literature) Melissa Hidalgo. Whittwood Branch · Wednesday, October 16 · 6:30 · Admission is free. For ages 21 and above. Get tickets at Central or Branch. Sponsored by the WPL Foundation.

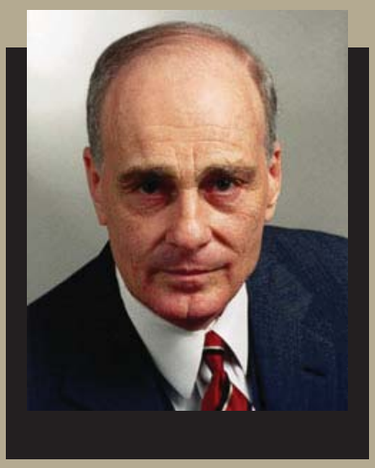


Steve Hodel, author and private detective, in person

Black Dahlia Avenger

Hodel will discuss new evidence in the notorious Black Dahlia case, including some findings so recent they're not even included in the 2012 edition. Black Dahlia Avenger II will be available for purchase and signing.

Whittwood Branch· Monday, October 21 · 6:00 · Free tickets at Central or Branch. Sponsored by the WPL Foundation.



Attorney and author

Vincent Bugliosi

Mr. Bugliosi, who has written two books on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, will talk about the assassination and its aftermath, as well as his own career as a prosecutor. Bugliosi is best known for prosecuting Charles Manson and other defendants in the Tate-La Bianca murder cases. Bugliosi's books will be available for purchase and signing.

Central Library · Thursday, November 7 · 6:30 · Free tickets at Central or Branch beginning Monday, October 14. Sponsored by the WPL Foundation.

presented by whittier public library

After HOURS