

Greg Alaniz, Director of Parks, Recreation and Community Services is a 29-year veteran of recreation services, which include 16 years for the City of Whittier. Greg began his career in recreation as a Recreation Leader in Montebello prior to joining the City of Whittier in 2001 as the Youth Services Supervisor. Greg also taught part-time for 15 years in the Montebello Unified School District's Regional Occupation Program (ROP) before hanging up his dry eraser in February 2015. Greg belongs to the California Parks and Recreation Society as well as the Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation where he continues to volunteer and promote the recreation profession. He is an avid runner and has competed in the grueling Ironman Triathlon. Greg holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Organizational Leadership from Azusa Pacific University.