Christina Johnson received her B. A. in Art History from the University of California, Los Angeles and M. A. in Visual Culture/Costume Studies from New York University. She began her career as Collections Manager at the FIDM Museum/ Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising, Los Angeles, and became Associate Curator in 2010, after co-curating the Richard Martin Exhibition Award-winning High Style: Betsy Bloomingdale and the Haute Couture.

She has been a featured speaker at Costume Society of America Symposia, the Stockholm Centre for Fashion Studies, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, Kensington Palace, and the Institute for Historical Research, London. Her areas of expertise include Victorian era fashion, the historiography of fashion studies, early photographic portraiture, and women's history.
