

HANO! A CENTURY IN THE BLEACHERS

A “must-see” film about the extraordinary life and times of Arnold Hano, an American editor, novelist, biographer, and journalist.

Hano is best known for his nonfiction work, A Day in the Bleachers, an eyewitness account of the 1954 World Series, centered around Willie Mays’ famous catch and throw.

Presented by filmmaker Jon Leonoudakis, creator of Hano! A Century in the Bleachers.

Whittwood Branch

Thursday, July 19 • 6:30

Free tickets at both libraries

A REEL CLUB documentary presented by Whittier Public Library
& sponsored by the WPL Foundation

