To Whom It May Concern:

Hello, my name is Sandra and I am a new Whittier resident. We recently purchased our home here and haven't really gotten to venture out due to the covid.

Prior to moving here I was familiar with Rio Hondo College, the Greenway Trail and Uptown Whittier. That being said, I think that the outdoor dining experience in uptown is a great addition to the city, however, I haven't gone to experience it myself due to the lack of distance in the seating area. If they're able to respect the guidelines about being 6 feet apart, I think it should stay, if not it definitely needs to go. I'm sure this is something that can be easily fixed, and I get that businesses are trying to get customers because we all have bills to pay, but it shouldn't be at anyone's safety expense. If this could be monitored to make sure that the guidelines are being met, it would be great.

Thank you,
Sandra A
